Bioeconomy development is influenced from multi-level economic, social and environmental policies related to sustainability and innovation

The aim

- to support 11 CEE countries in transition to bioeconomy

2018

2019

2020

BIOEASTsUP consortium partners (21)

How we SUPPORTs

- by helping to create National Bioeconomy Platforms – National Bioeconomy HUBs - to trigger political dialogue - Guidelines for preparing BIOEAST ad-hoc Inter-ministerial working Groups (BAIMAG) and National Stakeholder Working Groups (NSG) was prepared, work plan for was proposed.
- by providing thematic analysis of bioeconomy sectors and engaging stakeholders across the value chains

*BIOEASTsUP project partners analyze relevant policies, map biomass potentials and national bioeconomy activities, provide information on used and potential indicators to monitor economic development, propose macro-regional SRIA, propose evidence for policy support measures. Every analysis prepared by project partners will be discussed and consulted at national level .

- by creating synergies with other initiatives (national projects, EU projects, other initiatives) to develop a CEE Toolbox in support of strategic thinking
