

Overview of state of play on bioeconomy in Lithuania

Justina Vaišvilaitė

Ministry of Agriculture

Workshop “Facilitating development of bioeconomy policy – needs and gaps”

Brussels, May 3rd , 2019

What is currently available for a bioeconomy strategy ?

- ▶ Lithuanian Bioeconomy Development Feasibility Study (2017);
- ▶ Close cooperation with Vytautas Magnus University Bioeconomy Faculty, Kaunas University of Technology;
- ▶ Baltic workshop on SCAR and Bioeconomy Strategies; Conference Regions as Catalysts of Bioeconomy Development.

What are our target sectors for bioeconomy?

Turnover, pct

What are the responsible public bodies and relevant stakeholders?

-
- ▶ Public bodies: Ministry of Agriculture; Ministry of Environment; Ministry of Economics and Innovation; Ministry of Energy (under Law on Energy from Renewable Sources); Ministry of Health (biopharma sector).
 - ▶ Stakeholders: Vytautas Magnus University; Lithuanian Research Centre for Agriculture and Forestry; Lithuanian Biomass Energy Association LITBIOMA; Lithuanian Biotechnology Association; Lithuanian Forest Cluster; Association of Municipalities, etc.