CALL FOR POSTERS FOR THE ANNUAL BIOEAST BIOECONOMY CONFERENCE

The BOOST4BIOEAST project and the BIOEAST Initiative are inviting submissions for poster presentations at its Annual BIOEAST Bioeconomy Conference, which will take place at the University of Zadar, Zadar, Croatia on the 22nd and 23rd of April 2026.

POSTER THEME

We invite you to submit posters on best practices and projects advancing bioeconomy policy and governance processes and solutions from, and relevant to the Central and Eastern European macro-region.

WHO CAN SUBMIT?

This call is open to anyone from the public or private sector involved in bioeconomy-related fields such as researchers, industry professionals, governmental and non-governmental organizations, students and national or EU-funded projects.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Visibility: Showcase your work to an international audience, potentially leading to new collaborations and research opportunities.
- Networking: Engage with leading researchers, policymakers, and industry professionals in the bioeconomy space.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Posters with short abstracts should be submitted by 1 April 2026.

Abstracts:

- Abstracts should not exceed 300 words.
- In the case of scientific posters, they should clearly describe the objectives, methodology, results, and significance of the work.
- In the case of project posters, they should clearly show the vision, aim, approach, main outputs and significance of the project.

Posters:

- The Conference has no specific formatting requirements or template for displaying posters. However, all posters should include the same title and authors as submitted in the abstract and should be legible from a distance of 2 meters (recommended body text: 24-28 pt).
- Usage of pictures and figures are highly recommended.
- Posters must be brought to the conference printed in size A1 (594 x 841 mm).

HOW TO SUBMIT?

Upload your poster proposals in print ready PDF format via our application form via this LINK.

Accepted posters will be displayed at the conference venue on the 22nd of April, and particularly from 14.30 to 15.15, there will be an opportunity for direct interaction and networking with conference attendees.

IMPORTANT DATES

- Submission deadline (abstract and full posters): 1 April 2026.
- Notification of acceptance: 6 April 2026

BEST POSTER AWARDS

The Best Poster Awards will recognize the most outstanding poster contributions. It will be based on (1) the significance of the research and project contributions to bioeconomy policies in the BIOEAST region as well as (2) the clarity, creativity, and design of the poster. These awards will be noted in the program and presented with a signed certificate.

For additional information, please visit the BIOEAST website or contact the project manager Virág Nagypál at virag.nagypal@biokutatas.hu

We look forward to your innovative contributions to the bioeconomy community and hope to see you at the conference!
